

Free to the public!

2009 INTERNATIONAL MIGRATORY BIRD DAY SPRING FESTIVAL

SATURDAY, MAY 9, 2009

San Pedro House, Sierra Vista

- 7-9am Bird walk
- 7-9am Wildlife tracking walk
- 8-10am Nature and birding walk
- 8am Plein Air Painting (Huachuca Art Association)
- 8-10:45am Beaver and bird walk
- 9am Talk: Landscaping with Native Plants
- 10am Native Plant Sale (sponsored by Cochise County Master Gardeners)
- 10am Talk: Cost-effective Solar Applications (The Solar Store)
- 10am Book Signing: Robert Mesta author, Condor: Spirit of the Canyon
- 10:30am 30-Minute Family Birding Forays (at 10:30, 11:30, & 1:30)
- 11am Talk: Celebrating Birds in Culture:
The Importance of Birds to Native Cultures
- 12pm Pizza lunch and live music
- 1-3pm Workshop: Build Your Own Nest Box (for the whole family)
- 4-6pm Hummingbird Banding (Southeastern Arizona Bird Observatory)

Live animals with Gray Hawk Nature Center and Liberty Wildlife

Information displays by Cochise County Master Gardeners, Coronado National Forest, Friends of the San Pedro River, Huachuca Audubon Society, Sky Island Alliance, Sonoran Joint Venture, U of A Cooperative Extension Water Wise Program, USDA-Animal & Plant Health Inspection Services, Wild Birds Unlimited, and more. Schedule subject to change.

Visit www.sonoranjv.org for a complete schedule or call 520-508-4445 for details.

Festival Sponsors:

San Pedro
Riparian National Conservation
Area

